

LECTURES ON TRANSNATIONAL PERSPECTIVES ON MODERN INDIAN HISTORY AND CULTURE

CHIEF PATRON

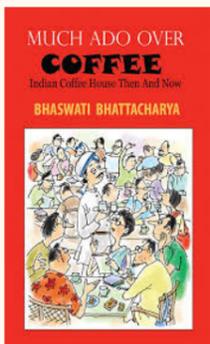

Professor (Dr.) Tejimala Gurung Nag
Vice-Chancellor
Darjeeling Hills University

PATRON

Dr. Sujata Rani Rai
Registrar (Additional Charge)
Darjeeling Hills University

LECTURE I : DR. BHASWATI BHATTACHARYA

TIME: 11:00 AM

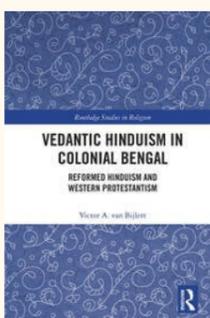

Dr. Bhaswati Bhattacharya, a Senior Academic Fellow at the Centre for Modern Indian Studies (CeMIS), University of Göttingen, Germany. An expert in the socio-economic history of modern and contemporary India. Her recent book titled Much Ado Over Coffee: Indian Coffee House Then And Now was published from Social Science Press in 2017.

Moderator: Debraj Ghatak, Department of History, Darjeeling Hills University

LECTURE II: DR. VICTOR VAN BIJLERT

TIME: 1:00 PM

Dr. Victor van Bijlert is a Retired Lecturer from Vrije Universiteit Amsterdam, Netherlands. A renowned scholar of Indian philosophy, literature, and the works of Rabindranath Tagore. His expertise ranging from world literature, classical philology and other religions. His recent book is Vedantic Hinduism in Colonial Bengal: Reformed Hinduism and Western Protestantism (London and New York: Routledge, 2020).

Moderator: Dr. Upasna Chettri, Department of History, Darjeeling Hills University

Date: March 2, 2026

Registration: 10:30 AM

Venue: Conference Room, Darjeeling Hills University

To confirm your participation and for more details,
use the QR code

Coordinator

Debraj Ghatak
Department of History
Darjeeling Hills University
Email: history@dhu.edu.in