

LECTURE

ALEXANDER CSOMA DE KÖRÖS (1784-1842), THE FOUNDER OF MODERN TIBETAN STUDIES

APRIL 10, 2026

10:30 AM

DARJEELING HILLS UNIVERSITY

Dr. Margit Köves is teaching Hungarian in the Department of Slavonic and Finno-Ugrian Studies in Delhi University for thirty five years. She has edited collections of Hungarian prose and poetry in Hindi, many translated jointly with Girdhar Rathi.

She also edited two collections of the bimonthly Social Scientist in 2017 and 2018 (vol. 45 & 46) on the work of the Hungarian philosopher Georg Lukács. She has been working on Buddhism (Buddhism among the Turks in Central Asia, 2010), and Indian and Hungarian Cultural Encounters and published studies about Alexander Csoma de Kőrös, Amrita Sher-Gil, Charles Fabri and Elizabeth Brunner.

MODERATOR AND COORDINATOR

Malavika Pradhan
Department of Political Science
Darjeeling Hills University
politicalscience@dhu.edu.in

SCAN THE QR CODE TO REGISTER